

Internet providers should not be able to restrict content or access to information. Please keep net neutrality and Article II intact and restrict broadband companies from blocking websites, slowing connection speeds and charging for faster delivery of certain content.